The undersigned, Marquis Mitchell a Half breed of the Creek Nation, and Sampson Bond a Freedman, of the same, both loyal refugees, being jointly duly examined and sworn (they understanding and conversing in the English language;) do depose and say that; they are not interested in the claim of Perry M. McIntosh, in any pecuniary manner whatever; that they have heard the foregoing Affidavit read to them and know its contents: The said Marquis Mitchell for himself, says, that he has good knowledge of the flight and the reasons therefor, which are as stated by the said Perry; that he knows the said Perry did own and possess on the place, quite as much, if not more property than is enumerated in the said Affidavit, and did necessarily abandon and lose the same; but, that, as to the capture of the said Perry in Missouri, and his being sent into Texas, this deponent does not, of his own knowledge, know, but from information, he believes the same to be true: And the said Sampson Pond, for himself says: That the deposition of the said Perry is true and correct in every particular: That he did own and possess all the property therein stated, and did abandon the same as stated by him. Further the said Perry did leave his home with the sole purpose and intent to join the Union, ^{forces} and this deponent did accompany him in his flight, and was with him at the time of his capture, as set forth in his deposition. And further these deponents do not say.
